

California Latino 5 a Day Campaign
2005 LATINO HEALTH SUMMIT
 - Conference Evaluation Summary –

Overall Assessment:

Do you feel this conference was successful in accomplishing its goals?

Yes	No	N/A
96%	0%	4%

As a result of this conference, do you feel that you are more equipped to improve fruits and vegetable and physical activity in low-income Latino communities?

Yes	No	N/A
96%	1%	3%

Was there sufficient time given to each presenter?

Yes	No	N/A
99%	1%	0%

Were your questions answered?

Yes	No	N/A
97%	0%	3%

Were the conference materials a valuable resource?

Yes	No	N/A
97%	0%	3%

Presentations:

Content/Speaker	Rating
Latino Health Status Dr. Eloisa Gonzales, Latino 5 a Day Spokesperson	82% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Prevalence of Latino Childhood Obesity Lupe, Alonzo-Diaz, MP Aff, Executive Director, Latino Coalition for Healthy California	96% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Leading the Way – CA Nutrition Network Susan B. Foerster, MPH, RD, Chief, CPNs – CA Department of Health Services	91% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Role of Direct health Service Providers Diana Bonta, RN, PhD, Vice President, Public Affairs, Kaiser Permanente, Southern Region	87% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Safe Routes to Healthy Foods Regional Coordinators, California Latino 5 a Day Campaign	68% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Importance of Local Leadership Nick Inzunza, President, League of Ca Cities – Latino Caucus	99% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Community Action Get Results Community Garden/Jogging Path – Los Angeles James Rojas, Chair, Latino Urban Forum	92% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Community Ownership Market Creek Plaza-San Diego, CA Roque Barros, Director of Community Building, Jacobs Center	91% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good
Community Advocates Lead Public/Private Partnership Fruitvale Transit Village – Oakland, CA Marsha Murrington, Senior Executive Officer, The Unity Council	78% of respondents rated this presentation as excellent/very good

Results were compiled from the 75 Evaluations collected at the event.